

BLINKING LIGHT GALLERY www.blinkinglightgallery.com
A Community Art & Gift Shop
located in the Historic Village of Plainfield, VT. 802-454-0141

Event Announcement

- What:* A Benefit Reading by Cornelius "Con" Hogan
- Where:* At the Blinking Light Gallery, 16 Main St., in Plainfield.
- When:* Thursday, January 26 at 6 pm.

Con Hogan will read from his trio of "Met Along the Way" books*, lighthearted collections of short stories and memoirs drawing from many of his Vermont roles which have included: author, businessman, gubernatorial cabinet member, social policy expert, candidate for governor, child welfare advocate, banjo player and more. A free event. All proceeds from book sales at this event will go to support the operations of the Gallery, a community-focused cooperative run by member artists, musicians and authors.

Contact: info@blinkinglightgallery.com; 454-0141, or Ricka McNaughton: 454-1275.

Upcoming author readings:

(Details to follow in later communications, and also on the Gallery website: www.blinkinglightgallery.com)

- Feb. 23: Robbie Harold
Mar. 22: Bob & Charlie Barasch
Apr. 26: Ann Day

*Titles include: Met Along the Way, Also Met Along the Way, and Finally Met Along the Way (Illustrated by Tim Newcomb).